RADIO BROADCAST IS COMPLIMENTED

MANY ALUMNI AND STUDENTS
REQUEST NUMBERS BY PHONE AND WIRE

Numerous telephone calls, telegrams and requests attested to the success of the program broadcast from WDAY at Fargo, by the musical organizations of the College Sunday afternoon last from 3 to 5 p. m.

Telegrams were received from Mr. Albert Christensen of Sleepy Eye, brother of Mr. Christensen of the College, congratulating him on the Band, and from Mrs. Fred Lazella, mother of Annabelle Lazella, extending congratulations to her and the Radio Girls.

Telephone calls came from former students, students at home for the week-end, faculty, and friends. Among those who called to congratulate Mr. Preston, Mr. Christensen and the musical groups were: Alma Erdahl, and the Misses Rainey, Leonard, Durbo-raw, Owens, Bieri, Hawkinson and Mrs. Bieri, Ernest Gates, Frances Hall, Gladys Karlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ebeltoft, Harold Sand, Mrs. R. G. Price, and Mrs. Byler.

Many Out-of-Town Calls.

Out-of-town persons who called were Elaine Magnuson, Erskine; Agnes Halvorson, Breckenridge; Mary Robinson, Mapleton; Hilde Sorkness, Henning; Mae Tangen, Alice Corneliussen, Oak Mound; Mr. and Mrs. Danielson and family, Detroit Lakes; Mrs. Geo. Lee, Glyndon; Vivian Mero, Fosston; Alma Syverson, Miss Tiedje, Ulen; Dr. Windsor, Fargo; Edna Rydell, Rosholt, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Garne, Perley; Dorothy Bemis, Tower City, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Monson, Fergus Falls.

Special requests were received by the Band, the Chorus, the Male Octet, Morris Fritz, Ruth Meilicke, Oscar Thompson, Leila Miller, Dwight Sherwood, and Alice Fernald.

Alumnae Write.

Miss Edna Hanson, '27, and Miss Gertrude Holme, '28, teaching at St. Vincent, sent to the performers a letter reflecting the general attitude of the alumni. This letter read in part: "We tuned in on the program given by the music department of the College this afternoon. We want to congratulate them on their especially fine program. 'Can't You Hear Me Calling, Caroline,' played by the band, came in exceptionally well. It gave us a thrill to hear the 'Alma Mater' again."

Affiliated Schools To Change Teachers

Many students are leaving the College Sunday to do their practice teaching in the affiliated schools while others are returning from their term of teaching.

The following students are leaving: Mildred Christenson, for Grover school; Clara Gebhart and Helen Picht, for Oak Mound; Alma Johnson, Jennie Johnson, Lydia Oksness, for Clearview; Anna Ruth, for Gundersen, and Martha Sorum for Sunny-side.

The following students have returned: Myrtle Berg, Evelyn Hermanson, Olive Bergenson, Sylvia Flikke, Lucille Frost, Olive Tukua, Blanche Holecck, Philamine LeVoy, Freda Odden, Edith Gast, Florence Simmons, Ilive Yonker, Esther Mattson, and Mamie Johnson.

Althaia Members May Enter Play Contest

At a meeting held on Monday evening, January 28, members of Althaia, Literary Society, discussed the possibility of their participation in a contest dealing with the writing of one-act plays, sponsored by the Fine Arts Club of Fargo.

The home of Mrs. O. J. Hagen was the meeting place of the group, and the following program was given: a discussion of Louis Bromfield and his works by Francis Bordsen; Thornton Wilder's latest works by Helen Kiland; "Whither Mankind," compiled by the well known historian, Beard, by Theodore Wantke, and Helen Walker's report of John Galsworthy's "Forsythe Saga." Following the reports and the discussion of the next meeting, Mrs. Hagen served refreshments to the group.

NOTED SCIENTIST ONCE A STUDENT AT M. S. T. C.

Recent news dispatches carried a story about Dr. John August Anderson, physicist at Mount Wilson observatory near Pasadena, Calif., who is building a telescope which, when finished, will be the largest of its kind in the world.

Dr. Anderson was formerly a student at the College and also attended Concordia.

CARNIVAL TO BE A GALA OCCASION

TEN GROUPS ANNOUNCE STUNTS
FOR AFFAIR; TO BENEFIT
ATHLETIC FUND

Lots of joy, fun, and laughter is in store for the students who are lucky enough to attend the Athletic Board Carnival tomorrow evening in the College gymnasium at 8:00 p. m., according to Ted Nemzek, chairman of the committee.

Of the various organizations of the campus which will have booths or stands of some description are the following: The Y. W. C. A. will have a side-show; Delta Sigma will have a stand, "Hit the Donkies"; the Pi Mu Phi's will sell confetti, and the Pep Squad will tell fortunes.

Entrance Exam by C. L. C.

The entrance examiners will be members of the Country Life Club, while the Kappa Pi sorority will have a beauty parlor. Lambda Phi Sigma will take pictures in a photograph gallery. The Owls will sponsor a minstrel chorus. A Silhouette Studio is the Art Club contribution. The Camp Fire organization has something in store, but would not let the committee know what it is going to be.

Following the patronizing of the booths and the viewing of stunts, dancing will complete the evening program.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS OF WEEK VARIED

The Reverend Otto Baab, of the Grace Methodist Church, Moorhead, gave a talk in chapel assembly on Wednesday, January 30, on "The Unpardonable Sin."

Reverend Baab explained the unpardonable sin as the sin of stagnation. From his talk was gained the idea that the sin of stagnation in college is for students to be content with meager work and as a result meager returns. He urged people to live an active, enjoyable life, rich with experiences of efforts and triumphs.

Trio Ensemble Friday.

On Friday, January 25, an interesting chapel exercise was given by local talent when Mr. and Mrs. Preston and Mr. Christensen delighted the student body with many selections. The following is the program that was given:

1. Little Symphony ..... Herman String Trio.
2. Romance ..... D' Ambrosio
3. Canebrake ..... Gardener Mrs. Preston, violin.
4. March ..... Wolferman
5. Gavotte ..... Marquis
6. Deep River ..... Burleigh String Trio.

FACULTY MEMBERS ACT AS JUDGES IN DEBATE

Messrs. Hamrin, Bridges, and Sande motored to Detroit Lakes on Tuesday, where they acted in the official capacity of judges for an inter-high school debate with Ada's negative team contesting Detroit Lakes' affirmative team.

Mr. Murray was one of three judges for the debate in Moorhead between Detroit's negative and Moorhead's affirmative team, with Detroit returned the winner. Ralph Smith, an alumnus of Moorhead H. S., was chairman of the evening.

The subject for consideration in Minnesota high school debates this year is: "Resolved, That we should cease to protect by armed forces capital invested in foreign lands until after formal declaration of war." This question was used last year by colleges over the middle west.

PEDS TO BATTLE PARKIES TONIGHT

TEAM JOURNEYS TO MORRIS TO-MORROW TO PLAY AG.
SCHOOL TEAM.

Tonight the Peds will attempt to improve their standing when they meet Park Region Luther College, of Fergus Falls, on the local Armory floor, at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow they journey to Morris to meet the Agricultural School team at that place.

Park Region has just recently defeated Morris Aggies, tomorrow's opponent, but has also lost to Mayville S. T. C.

Little is known of the strength of Park Region, but if they have an outfit as strong as that which they had last year, the Peds will be in for an interesting evening.

Coach Looks for Good Game.

Coach Nemzek has assured us that the game will be fought with all the fight at the command of the team and that the game shall indeed be an interesting one.

Wahpeton Science, champions of conference last year, took another step toward their second title when they defeated Jamestown 37 to 31 last Friday at Wahpeton.

The Valley City Vikings' win over Minot by a decisive score, and the Jamestown victory over the Peds puts those two teams in second and third place, respectively, for the flag.

George Brewster, of Wahpeton, outstanding scorer of the conference last season, is off again to a flying start. In three games the big rangy star has collected 27 field goals and 16 free throws for a total of 70 points.

PUCKSTERS LOSE GAME TO LAKES

The Ped hockey sextet lost a hard fought game with the Lakers of Detroit Lakes last Saturday, the score being 5 to 4. A great amount of good playing was displayed by both teams, and a few individuals starred. Wambach and Wiek scintillated for the Peds.

The game was rather slow in the first two periods, and the third period opened with the score two to two. The Lakers then came to with a vengeance, and scored three more points before the final bell rang.

The Lakers displayed somewhat better teamwork than the Peds in this game, but it is expected that with some more practice the College outfit will develop into a fine team.

Mayville - Ped Game Is Dropped From Schedule

At the regular business meeting of the Athletic Board of Control held January 28 the board decided to cancel the game scheduled between the College and Mayville Teachers College. The game, which was to be played on the local floor February 8, had to be abandoned because of frozen financial assets. Inasmuch as no return game was scheduled with the Mayville Teachers College, the board felt justified in making this cancellation.

11 Will Be Initiated By Pi Mu Phi's Sunday

Carol Hagen, Christine Lucken, and Lillian Hallstrom are the committee in charge of the formal initiation services to be held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. J. Hagen, 405 Eighth Street South, Moorhead, at 5 o'clock for eleven pledges of the Pi Mu Phi sorority. The following girls will be initiated: Helen Lincoln, Ruth Muller, Marian Nyberg, Alice Fernald, Stella Felde, Pearl Fankhanel, Doris Elliott, Glee Burrows, Altha Gabrielson, Bernice Bolser, and Alys Hagen.

A "Rook-dinner" will be held in Weld Hall Saturday at 4:30. The active Pi Mu Phi's and alumnae members will be guests of the "rookies". Covers will be placed for thirty-five and the appointments will be carried out in black and white, the sorority colors. Mock initiation will follow the dinner. Alice Fernald is the chairman of the committee for entertainment, and Glee Burrows is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

KAPPA PI'S TO HAVE PARTY

The Kappa Pi sorority will have a Valentine party on February 15, the diversions to be cards and dancing.

NEW PLAN FOR TEACHERS CERTIFICATES IS SENT TO LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES

The Ped hockey team will engage the Cobbers from Concordia in a hockey game to be played on the Moorhead municipal ice rink at 3 o'clock tomorrow.

"Lottie" Wambach, manager and coach of the team, announces that there will be no admission charge.

Concordia has played no games this year, but they boast a formidable outfit with Rene Wambach and Albert Lerberg, stars of last year's outfit.

PEDS LOSE TWICE TO WAPS, JIMMIES

The Wahpeton Wildcats, headed directly for the conference championship, stopped at the Armory Wednesday evening and left with another victory to add to their long list. The Peds fell before the Wildcat rushes 31 to 18.

It was just a case of too much Brewster. This Wildcat forward, leading scorer of the conference, spent another profitable evening by adding 22 points to his season's total, enough points to win the game.

The Wops left the floor at the half with the score 17 to 7 in their favor. George Edwards led the Peds in the first half. His consistently good basketball constituted the Ped hopes. Shortly after Bill Davis went under the basket to realize a set-up, George came through with two field goals and a free throw to give his team its seven points.

The second half saw a much stronger Ped offense and a slightly stronger defense. Edwards, aided by Vic Anderson, led the Crimson in a rally which cut down the Wildcat lead. With the margin becoming narrower, Wahpeton spurred to take a long lead of 14 points.

SOPHS DRESS FOR COSTUME PARTY

The "All Nations" party given by the Sophomores last Friday evening was well attended by the members of the Sophomore class and by the upper-classmen, attired in costumes to represent the various countries.

Constance Klodsvik, representing Holland, was awarded the prize for having the best costume. A program of song and dances was given by several students. Lyman Davis won acclaim as a buck-and-wing dancer.

Thelma Erickson, Evelyn Blaha, Elizabeth Wilder, Constance Klodsvik, Eleanor Johnson and Ella Anderson did a Swedish folk dance. In another number Ruth Meilicke and Leila Miller represented a Dutch courtship in song. Lucille LaReviere, Beatrice Kluczny, and Carol Hagen gave a negro folk dance.

Members of various committees for the party were: Entertainment, Ruth Meilicke, Helen Kiland, Leila Miller, and John Costain; Refreshment, Simon Nokken, Thelma Erickson, Evelyn Frenzel, Christian Schulstad, and Albert Gludt; Decoration, Frances Benedict, Clifford Overum, Vesta Quitmeyer, Elizabeth Johnson, and Edith Davis; Cleanup, Floyd Carter, Lillian Halstrom, Lillian Sorenson, Gorman Thompson, and Helen Sorknes.

Formal Initiation Of Gams Set for Sunday

Formal initiation services of the Gamma Nu sorority will take place next Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. V. Hutchinson, 417 Seventh Ave. So., Fargo, when the following pledges are to be initiated: Evelyn Johnson, Dorothy Ness, Gladys Munson, Helen Sorknes, Alice Sykora, Jessamine Lunder, Alice Isaacson, Audre Casselman, and Ruth Hundebey.

The foregoing pledges will serve a rookie dinner to the active members of the organization in Weld Hall this evening at 6:30. Covers will be laid for twenty-five. Following the dinner

OF INTEREST TO T. C. STUDENTS
COVERS EVERY TYPE OF SCHOOL WORK

(Editor's Note.—The MISTIC is printing a summary of the bill introduced for the certifying or "licensing" of teachers in the state, believing it to be of timely interest.)

State Capitol, St. Paul, Jan. 24.—Bills prescribing the qualifications of teachers, administrators and supervisors in the public schools and to provide for the licensing of teachers, has been introduced in the Minnesota legislature and has been referred to the education committee of both house and senate.

The authority to license teachers would be vested solely in the state board of education and licenses "shall" be issued to such persons as the board shall find to be physically competent and morally fit to teach and to have the qualifications prescribed by the measure.

Teachers' licenses are to be divided by the state board into two classes, elementary school and high school licenses.

In the elementary school license division, four classes of licenses shall be issued, an advanced, a standard, a limited, and a special license.

Elementary Licenses.

Qualifications for each license are set forth as follows in the proposed measure:

Elementary School Advanced License.—This shall qualify any holder thereof to teach in any elementary school, and shall be issued to any person who holds a diploma of a Minnesota State Teachers College, showing that such holder has completed the four-year course in elementary education of such college.

Elementary School Standard License.—This shall qualify any holder thereof to teach in any elementary school, and shall be issued to any person who holds a diploma of a Minnesota State Teachers College, showing that such holder has completed the two-year course in elementary education of such college.

Elementary School Limited License.—This shall qualify any holder thereof to teach in ungraded elementary schools only, and may be issued to any person who has completed a one-year course of professional training approved by and in an institution designated by the state board of education to give such training.

WORK IS PUSHED ON PRAECEPTOR

The recent closing of the Moorhead bank in which the Praeceptor had all of its funds necessitates a change in the character of the book, but the students are assured that a good book will be issued. If the bank reopens, the Praeceptor will come out as it was originally planned.

This was the sense of the meeting of the Praeceptor staff called together last Saturday forenoon. A majority of the members were present and several matters pertaining to the Praeceptor were discussed.

Co-operation Asked.

Co-operation on the part of the students is urged. The feature section is especially in need of this, as this section is mostly composed of snapshots sent in by the students. Few photos have come in as yet and all students are asked to bring their snapshots to the Praeceptor office or to Ruth Meilicke or Christian Schulstad.

On the whole, the work of the Praeceptor staff is going smoothly, and a book about the usual size will be out in the spring, just as in previous years.

ANNUAL PLAY PRACTISE HELD ALL THIS WEEK

Work on the annual class play is going ahead this week with renewed energy with the return of Miss Tainter to school. The cast will be made definite soon, and it is probable that an announcement will be made in next week's MISTIC as to the personnel.

A UNIT COMPLETE IN ITSELF

How many students who attend this College are up to the minute and know just how much we can do here without the aid of our neighbor colleges in Moorhead and Fargo? We can teach, we can entertain, we can get books as soon as they are off the press in our library, we can play basketball, we have our post-office and our telephone system, we can have school parties, we can play hockey, we can have a band and orchestra. We can study literature, we can put on a class play, we can even have "the gift to see ourselves as others see us," due to the good work of Mr. White. Mr. White is now busily engaged in taking group pictures for the 1929 Praeceptor.

THE NEW RENAISSANCE

Historians and sociologists have long been familiar with the renaissance, that period of history which marked a transition in the thoughts and acts of men. Learning was reborn. But why do we picture the renaissance as a single period? Today we are in the midst of a renaissance just as marked and fully as potent as that one of an earlier age.

It began about twenty-five years ago; it is not over yet; and it will last for years to come. Let the historians of the tomorrow set the exact dates. Just as we had a change six hundred years ago so now we have a change.

Dante, Plutarch, Angelo, Boccaccio, and Cellini are names which have come down to us as being characteristic of that period. In their own day they never achieved the importance which they now enjoy. It is the same today. Our artists and men of letters will be spoken of with the same respect as we now have when we mention the "Divine Comedy." It may be Wells, Shaw, Lewis, Gibbs, Wilder, or perhaps someone to us who is so insignificant that his works are ill known.

Perhaps Whistler shall be the Raphael of this new period; or it may be Savage, Jo Davidson, or Remington—possibly one of these cubists. Why not?

The trend of thought suffered a rude change shortly after the Mauve Decade. What is there now about which we do not think? Some say that we are sceptics. Perhaps so; but sceptics are those who destroy old models and venture forth into a search for new. The great reformers of history were sceptics who were fortunate enough to have lived in an age when they had a chance of being believed. Just as many have been scoffed at when the times were not so favorable.

The great enigma of life, true, is not solved; but today we have new ideas, and what is life but a series of ideas? Some have changed their idea of life as the Great Ordeal, such as existed years ago, to what John Masefield meant by,

"And may we find when ended is the page
Death but a tavern on our pilgrimage."

And even that idea was expressed years ago by an obscure tent-maker in Naishpur.

Our inventions have caused an entire revision of the daily life of man. The world is now closer today that were London and Paris in 1700.

Today we have no room for Alexanders who sigh for new worlds to conquer, for their remains incalculable things about which we want to learn.

We live in a new world of thought and deed strikingly different from that period preceding it. History shall long remember this era. Those who are able to appreciate it are those who are making the most contribution.

Who knows what shall be considered the most striking phase of this New Renaissance?

LANDBLOM-DOMMER

Miss Hilda Dommer, daughter of Mrs. Helene Dommer, 17 Fifth street south, Moorhead, is the bride of Roy E. Landblom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Landblom, 1347 Twelfth Avenue South, Fargo. The wedding took place January 22 in the parsonage of Trinity Lutheran Church, Rev. S. T. Sorenson officiating. Miss Marjorie Landblom, sister of the bridegroom, and Glen Landblom, cousin, were the attendants. Mrs. Landblom is a graduate of Moorhead High School and formerly attended the College and Concordia College. She is employed in Herbst's store.

Dakota Agricultural College, where he is a member of Alpha Sigma Tau fraternity and Scabbard and Blade, military fraternity.

They will make their home in Schenectady, N. Y., after school is out, where Mr. Landblom has accepted a position.

I had rather have a fool make me merry than experience make me sad. Lucky is the man who really knows, for at the crucial hour he is not the one who feels as the wetted hen.

Gate sign in a New England suburb: YE OLDE FRESH EGGS.

THE PED PEPYS

Up betimes after spending a sleepless night trying to perfect a minute detail on my invention, which is destined to do away with goggle wearing among the Hottentots in central New Zealand. After freshening up a bit, I took myself off to Ye College Coffee Shoppe in quest of the proverbial cup of liquid whose main ingredient is said to be grown in Brazil, from whence the nuts do issue. Here, I encountered Sir Basil Townsend and Herr Albert Zech, both of whom are in the field this year and are reported as doing as well as can be expected under extremely adverse conditions. They expect to return to civilian clothes as soon as they have put in their allotted time.

Back to my invention, but being unable to concentrate with any great degree of success, I gave up after six hours and forty-three minutes of effort. To the campus where I viewed a strange sight indeed. I did behold the Gam's and Pi's, who had apparently donned their masks, smiling and chatting affably with one and another—and the zaneys did agree that they were having a most marvelous time. This unusual happening did make me feel quite weak, so I rested until game time.

To the armory where Sir Nemzek's men were holding joust with the gentlemen from Jamestown. After seeing so many dives I asked the neighbor whether I was at a swimming meet or at a basketball game. After forty minutes of fumbling, Jamestown emerged the victor by two dives and one point. To the room where I decided to catch up on the loss of the nocturnal pastime. Here I beheld friend Wiek in a poetic mood resulting from his study of Shakespeare, quoting gently to himself:

"What a wonderful bird is the pelican
His beak holds more than his belican,
He holds in his beak
Enough food for a week;
I don't see how—he does it."

And so to bed.

Frolic Squad of Y. W.
Gives One-Hour Dance

Something new in the way of programs was inaugurated by the Y. W. C. A. group at the last Wednesday meeting in the Weld Hall domestic science rooms at 4:30, when the girls of the College were admitted to an hour of dancing and light refreshments.

Ila Cook, president of the Frolic Squad is quoted as hoping that this type of event will be a regular part of the meeting.

GLYNDON NEWS

Hazel Wien and Anna Dahlen were Fargo shoppers Saturday.

Mr. E. Young drove to Fairmount, N. D., Friday, where he spent the week-end visiting friends. He was accompanied by Frances Kugler, who visited at her home there.

Dorothy Regimbal and Gertrude Jones spent Friday night in Moorhead. Then attended the Sophomore party while there.

The Misses Grimsrud, Alsaker, Milen, Mathieson, and Ramley spent Saturday in Fargo and Moorhead. While there they attended a dinner given by Miss Lommen.

The Glyndon High basketball team defeated Audubon High team Friday night.

Miss Lommen, Dr. Archer, and Mr. Hamrin were school visitors last week.

Because of the snowstorm last Tuesday the student teachers were given a day of REST.

Mrs. Deal, a representative of the Red Cross Association, spoke at the Glyndon school Friday afternoon.

Family Album

This is Uncle Knute. As you see he is dressed as the Grand Ofum for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animal Crackers. He is quite taciturn by nature and when he drives he always gives a woman driver half of the road as soon as he finds out which half she wants. He is minus three teeth which he lost when he shifted gears on a lolly-pop. In his own home town he is considered quite a singer, having sung in six flats and having been kicked out of every one of them. His average income is about three in the morning. Just at present he is working on a scheme for giving intelligence tests to the writers of intelligence tests. Notice his feet; he has to back up when he wants to ring a door bell. A musician once mistook one of Uncle Knute's rubbers for a violin case and walked three miles before discovering his mistake.

Here is Cousin Agamemnon. In the family tree, he is the sap. His picture, as you see, is quite comical, for Agg is quite a wag. He delights in practical jokes. He once parked his car in front of the village pool hall and, in order to keep it from being stolen, he drained all the oil out of the crank case. He then knew that it wouldn't be driven very far. He got quite a kick out of this trick. He is the family liability. He fancies himself to be a singer. He really has a good voice—for selling fish.

He once told me that he took a girl to a show and then he bought her a bag of peanuts; strange to say, the girl still owes him the fifteen cents.

1. McSquatter is only a janitor at Podunk Tech. Due to his habit of failing to fire up these cold mornings he usually catches plenty from the prexy. Last week a brick caught him in the head. He usually is catching cold the entire winter. For this reason he is placed at left end. He is a catcher.

2. Sqgmfx (I can't pronounce the name, either), is a freshman at East High at Tampa, Florida. He is twelve years old and weighs 106 pounds. He made a letter at dear old East High because of his name. It is his custom to go into a game and ask the name of his opponent. He then says, "Glad to meet you, Jones," or whatever the name might be. Then the thing which stamps him as All-American happens; he then says, "My name's Sqgmfx." His opponent can only say, "Glad to meet you, Sqgmfx," and is then promptly taken to hospital for lockjaw treatment. In one game this fellow wore out 19 players. He thus easily makes left tackle.

3. "Fox" Higgins makes left guard because of his deception. It is his custom to move so stealthily that people, especially cops, can't hear him. Placed at guard, he could easily tackle the opposition without their being aware of it. He is at present residing at Sing Sing, but he should be out in ten years. He took home some samples from the bank.

4. Gilda Gray is usually the center of attraction wherever she is, so she makes center on this team. With the opponents gazing at Gilda my team should average ten touchdowns a game.

5. Jim Jeffries, former heavyweight champ, had a guard that baffled his opponents for years. He thus is the best candidate for the other guard. The idea is to get him mad and then shove him into the game.

6. Daddy Browning has tackled enough tough propositions to earn himself a place on this team. He gets right tackle. He must be guarded against fruit, however; he may know his onions, but he sure doesn't know his peaches.

7. Commander Byrd is to spend two years at the South Pole—the end of the world. He should know a lot name him end.

8. John Philip Sousa has been directing bands for a long time, so he can easily direct this team. If he doesn't prove much as a player let him head the band and shove in a traffic cop who is used to directing. He is a fine quarterback.

9. Ralph De Palma has passed just about everything on four wheels, so we can name him as a half, figuring that if he can pass a ball as well as he can pass cars, we'll win in a walk.

10. A halfback must be a good runner. Gene Tunney proved at Chicago that he is a cinch for this position. We laugh when we think of the fruitless attempts which will be made to catch him.

11. The fullback must be a crasher, so we name One-Eyed Connolly. He has crashed enough gates to make crashing a line seem fairly easy.

Children

(By Dr. H. G. Gumpff)

1. The precocious child—this is the child who usually is a prodigy. I choose little Elmer Squimpf as a type. At the age of three weeks he picked up a red hot poker and dropped it immediately without having to have anyone tell him to. Thus he showed infinite promise at a very tender age. He had been in the fifth grade only for a week when he composed the following poem. (Hughes Mearns evidently thought it to be the work of an adult or else he would have included it in his "Creative Youth.") The pulsating iambs follow in stately sonority:

I have a little dolly.
I like it very well.
If I punch it in the tummy
It says Mamma.

2. The Staring Child.—This type is met on railway carriages and tram cars. It usually fastens its gaze on some imperfection in the face or clothing. Immediately the whole car becomes intensely interested in you and you wish you had had that shoe fixed. Sometimes the child makes a cunning remark, such as, "Mother, who is that man with the large nose?" To get the proper effect this must be shouted. The only thing to do is to get off at the next corner.

3. The Born Actor.—This is the one who favors you with mechanical recitations of Hamlet's "Soliloquy" or Coleridge's "Kubla Khan." It sometimes dances. It might even play the piano—after a fashion—while it counts quite audibly, "One, two, three, four." The selection is always terribly played just when you happen to be present although yesterday little Algernon rendered it with wonderful pathos and understanding. It must be a system.

4. The Pedant.—This one scorns Santa Claus. At seven he has read Boccaccio and Rabelais. At twelve he rests, like Byron, "A perfect Timon," and the world holds no more for him. He is frequently thrashed by the plumber's boy, who is of only average intelligence.

This child is good timber for a college professor but usually he winds up as a bookkeeper, thus showing the futility of life. Personally I think his name, Marmaduke, or such, is responsible.

5. The Child With a Mania.—I select for this purpose wee Timothy Puckleworts. He collects wallpaper. After visiting at a home the residents thereof usually have to alter the position of their pictures along the walls.

Nothing is safe when he's around. The only remedy is to cut off his big toe—clear up to the neck.

(H. G. Gumpff has recently completed his thesis for his doctor's degree at Shoe College. This college is a few degrees higher than Oxford. We print only a portion of it. The title for the thesis was, "Present Trends in Education." I suggest him as a possible rival for Baron Munchhausen (if you get what I mean). The degree has just recently been conferred.)

WOMEN'S TOURNEY
NOW UNDER WAY

SIDE TEAMS IN CLOSE GAME;
FROSH ARE WINNERS

As The MISTIC goes to press the Sophomore Outside women's basket-ball team had just won a game by a large score from the team captained by Lillian Sorenson. This contest was the third of the tourney being conducted by the women's physical education department and the W.A.L. In the other games played to date, Goodhue's team won from the Junior High School team, 28 to 12, Brodine's team defeated a team captained by F. Johnson, 32 to 12, and the Freshmen Outside had won from the Sophomores by a narrow margin of 17 to 14.

With the affair only just begun, it is difficult to venture a guess as to the winning team. Much talent is coming to light, however, among girls here for the first time this year, as well as among those who played on winning teams last year.

Schedule Is Given.

The complete schedule is as follows, and the games billed extend through the winter quarter and into the beginning of the spring term, March 20, being the date of the final fray.

The complete schedule of remaining games is as follows: Brodine vs. Outside Freshmen, Jan. 30; J.H.S. vs. F. Johnson, Feb. 4; Goodhue vs. Sorenson, Feb. 6; Sophomore Outside vs. F. Johnson, Feb. 11; J.H.S. vs. Brodine, Feb. 13; Goodhue vs. Freshmen Outside, Feb. 18.

TEACHERS HAVE PLAN

of to teach kindergarten, music, fine arts, industrial arts or physical education, or such other special subject as the needs of the school may require, in any elementary school, and shall be issued to any person who holds a diploma of a Minnesota State Teachers College, showing that such holder has completed its standard course in the special subject or subjects as to which he applies for a license to teach, and may also be issued to any person who has completed an essentially equivalent course in an institution accredited and approved by the state board of education for training teachers in such special subjects.

High School Licenses.

Two kinds of high school licenses are provided for in the bill—general and special licenses—and there are standard and advanced licenses in each of the general and special divisions.

The high school standard general license shall indicate the academic field or fields or classes of high schools (junior or senior) for which the holder has been especially training and shall qualify the holder to teach academic subjects in junior high schools, four-year high schools, and junior-senior high school organizations, provided that the holder of a standard general license shall be qualified to teach in the seventh and eighth grades of an eight-year elementary school. Such license shall be issued to any person holding a degree of the college of education of the University of Minnesota, or of a Minnesota State Teachers College, designated by the college for the training of high school teachers.

The standard special license shall qualify any person to teach in the special fields of agriculture, home training, industrial arts, commercial subjects, physical education, music or fine arts. Such license would be issued to persons holding degrees of the college of education of the University of Minnesota or of a Minnesota State Teachers College.

Any person who has training entitling him to receive a high school standard general license, or a high school standard special license, and who, in addition, has completed one year of graduate work of a kind and school advanced license, either general or special. Such license shall qualify the holder to teach the same subjects and in the same institutions in which the holder of a corresponding standard license is licensed to teach and in junior colleges.

Revocation Is Provided.

Principals or supervisors, under the terms of the bill, shall be qualified if they hold a license qualifying them to teach in their school and have in addition other qualifications which may be prescribed by the state board of education. A person shall be qualified to be superintendent of schools in any district when he shall hold a high school general license with the additional qualifications to be set by the board.

The bill also provides that teachers have passed training requirements in other states similar to those prescribed in Minnesota shall be granted licenses to teach in this state.

Other provisions of the bill provide for the renewal of licenses, the collection of a small fee for licenses and for the suspension or revocation of licenses.

The state board may, on written complaint of the school board employing a teacher, or of the superintendent of the county in which such teacher is employed, or of its own motion, suspend or revoke a teacher's license or certificate to teach for any of the following causes: Immoral character or conduct; failure, with justifiable cause, to teach for the term of his contract; gross inefficiency or wilful neglect of duty; or affliction with active tuberculosis or some such communicable disease.

up, the Peds scoring again and again, constantly cutting the lead of the champions, but the crack of the gun found the Wops twelve points in the lead.

Achter, Thompson, and Strand aided the Wildcat offense. Aside from them clever guarding of Beeson of Wahpeton and the teamwork of Bielfeldt and Ingersoll of the Peds deserves mention.

Jimmies Shave Out, 24-25.

A well executed gift shot by Woolridge was the deciding factor in the Jamestown-Ped tussle held Saturday evening in our off-campus gymnasium. Woolridge's free throw made the sum total of the Jimmies score 25 as compared to the 24 points annexed by the Crimson clan.

The score indicates the closeness of the contest that found Jamestown leading the greater portion of the time, with the exception of the last few minutes when Vic Anderson's field goal broke a 22-all count and gave the Peds a valuable lead. However the Peds didn't seem satisfied with their margin and endeavored to increase the lead. Ingersoll's shot was taken off the Moorhead bank-board and by some well directed passing the Jimmies placed Woolridge in an easy shooting position, of which he took advantage to deadlock the issue at 24 all. The rest of the story is known. Suffice to say the Armory hasn't witnessed for some time a more exciting finish of Ped home games.

Many Shots Missed.

However, it must be mentioned as the redeeming feature of the mix that it started well, but the miserable shooting of both teams dampened the interest of spectators. Either team missed enough shots in the first ten minutes to win any man's game.

The game really got under way when Simson and Anderson were injected into the Ped lineup. Simson came through with a couple of counters from the field, and a counter by Edwards knotted the count at 10 points where the half ended. The second half found Anderson blazing the way for the Peds, while Slaughter and Woolridge led Jamestown in a very interesting scrap that ended in a frenzy of hope and excitement.

Stars Are Many.

For the Peds, Vic Anderson was again the hope. Edwards also did his share throughout the tussle, as did Art Simson. The defense was ably supported by Capt. Bielfeldt and Ingersoll, Nemzek's stalwart guards.

For the Jimmies laurels must first of all go to Woolridge for the timeliness of his score and his constant playing. Hall, Slaughter and Gussner rounded out the Jimmie band of huskies. Coach Erickson presented a well balanced quintet on Saturday evening's program, as the score indicates.
